Starting a new 41 Club

CLUB FORMATION

Minimum strength

At least 7 prospective members are required to form a new club.

Geographic base

Members must be from the same city or cities within the same prevailing Area.

Eligible applicants

Retired Round Tablers or Ex-Tablers who have attained 40 years of age.

Important eligibility condition

A person expelled from Round Table is not eligible. A new club cannot combine members belonging to different Areas spread across the country.

New club formation — the process

STEP-BY-STEP SOP

01 Sponsor club informs the Area Chairman by email and shares its latest A & B forms filed with the Secretariat.

02 Prospective members submit the prescribed application and personal, Table-career and spouse details.

03 Sponsor club conducts 3 contact meetings, with an Area or National Executive present wherever available.

04 Sponsor club considers membership; meeting minutes and attendance of the first 2 meetings, with photographs, go to the Area Chairman.

05 Applicants attend 3 contact meetings. The sponsor club decides on acceptance and submits forms and fees to the Secretariat.

Before the charter is confirmed

CLUB FORMATION

- Club name format: City name + Club Identifier + “Club” + number allotted by the National Council (example in docket: Delhi Dynamic Club XXX).
- The Area Chairman creates a temporary WhatsApp group with sponsor club executives, charter members, Extension Convenor and President 41 India.
- Transfers from existing clubs can be inducted into the new club only after the new club is chartered.
- Appoint Charter Chairman and Charter Secretary during the 2nd or 3rd contact meeting; the charter date can then be fixed.
- After all forms and fees are received, allow a minimum of 2 weeks for document verification and preparation of kits, T-shirts, badges and charter certificate.

Welcoming a new 41er

SUGGESTED INDUCTION

“It is our privilege to welcome you into 41 India. You have contributed to the welfare and growth of your Table, and now continue the bonds of friendship established during your tabling years.

Your membership carries duties and obligations. We look forward to your time, knowledge and commitment for the betterment of members, your club and the national movement.

It is my pleasure to formally induct you and welcome you into the worldwide association of 41 Clubs.”

Use the member’s name, city, club name and club number when delivering the induction.

Welcoming a newly chartered club

SUGGESTED CLUB INDUCTION

“It is our privilege to welcome this new 41 Club into our movement. Its members have been active Tablers who believe in carrying forward the bonds of friendship and fellowship.

We remind you of your responsibility to work for the welfare of your club, promote peace and harmony among members, and share your time and knowledge for the betterment of the national movement.

Congratulations to the Charter Chairman and every member. Welcome to the 41 India family.”
